Testing, Testing, Testing

Answer Key

1. How should the highest priority needs in our public schools be addressed? Check up to four responses.

   Answer: a, b, d, e

2. What strategies should be employed to help ensure that public school students are well prepared to contribute to civil society and actively engage in democratic processes? Identify the one that is least relevant.

   Answer: c

3. Through which means should public schools be supported in addressing student mental health? Identify the strategy least likely to be effective.

   Answer: c

4. Which of these outcomes has not resulted from the Back to the Basics education movement popularized through political sloganeering in the US? Check one.

   Answer: d

5. What long overdue steps can the provincial government take to ensure that the public tax dollars allocated to education are actually supporting our public schools? Check all that apply.

   Answer: a, b, c, d